

Jude Johnson...

is Hamilton's music ambassador; Woman of the year in the Arts 1992, and a recipient of the Hamilton Arts Award and many Ontario Arts Council awards. She has seven recordings released, including "Singin and a Swingin" for young audiences. She can be seen everyday on the Treehouse Channel TV show "Ants in your Pants". Jude is also the Founder/Director of the M.A.D. Creative Art School, where over 6,000 children have found the joys of music, art and drama. Jude truly brings out the "song in your heart". She is a member of SOCAN and the Musician's Guild Local 293.

Carl Horton is on the Faculty of Music at Mohawk College and Recording Arts Canada. He is the musical director/producer of the world famous Geritol Follies, and has written numerous scores and theme music for film and television. Carl and Jude have been musical partners for over twenty years. His greatest love remains playing the piano, and he is one of the finest accompanists in Canada.

Quotes...

Your energetic, fast-paced concert certainly elicited a lot of audience response. I think you must have raised the temperature in the room by at least ten degrees! I don't think I'll ever be able to look at a French fry again without thinking of the McDonald's song. The show was a lot of fun and all those in attendance enjoyed themselves immensely."

Jude Johnson is a sure bet to provide an exciting high energy show the kids will love. Jude has performed for us on many occasions and the result is always the same - a show that is filled with fun and excitement for both young and old. Jude is a versatile performer who is able to bring life to any setting, indoors or out. We look forward to working with Jude on future special events.
